THE BARRY GRAY SHOW

ONE MENTIONED IN LOCAL TALK PROGRAM

GUESTS: Stanley Ross, editor-in-chief, El Diario; Dave Dillinger, member editorial board, Liberation, supporter of Fair Play For Cuba Committee; Samuel H. Friedman, journalist, trade union leader, formerly Socialist candidate for Vice President of U.S.A.

(At this point in a discussion of the Cuban situation the participants were discussing the question of suppression of freedoms in national emergencies.)

FRIEDMAN: "By the way, Franklin Roosevelt also overturned the Constitution, you see, when he took American citizens of Japanese ancestry and put them in a concentration camp and the Supreme Court upheld that too."

DILLINGER: "You can't get over the brand of freedom in Cuba while the CIA is conducting an invasion of Cuba and interfering with their freedom to have the form of government and the form of society..."

GRAY: "You're all talking at the same time and I don't know whether you realize this or not, you've cancelled each other out."

FRIEDMAN: "Yes."

DILLINGER: "I'm sorry..."

GRAY: "Mr. Friedman was talking about the Nisei and somebody else chimed in and said that was wrong. None of you were in California during that period, were you?"

FRIEDMAN: "I was editor of the Socialist Call at the time and we had correspondence..."

DILLINGER: "My house was built by a Nisei."

GRAY: "Gerlemen..."

DILLINGER: "They were in concentration camps in America during the war."
